GENERAL INFORMATION

Welcome to the Los Angeles Community College District’s (LACCD) CalWORKs Program. The CalWORKs program is dedicated in assisting you in achieving your academic and vocational goals. We will work closely with your GAIN Service Worker (GSW) to provide you with comprehensive supportive services.

These services may include: case management, career/job development, work-study, ancillary request/reimbursement forms, child care, academic and career counseling, resource referrals, workshops, completion of various forms, tutoring, and other services.

CalWORKs STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Please be aware of the following guidelines in order to maintain satisfactory participation and ensure your success at LACCD:

- ✓ Submit a Verification of Benefits indicating TANF cash aid eligibility for yourself and everyone on your case within four weeks of the current semester or class.
- ✓ Maintain required hours of approved activities as stated in your Welfare to Work agreement.
- ✓ Meet with an academic counselor before the start of each semester.
- ✓ Seek advisement with an academic counselor if you are struggling in your classes.
- ✓ Maintain a 2.0 GPA or higher in all courses.
- ✓ Notify our office of any changes to your case or school schedule within seven days of the change.
- ✓ It is your responsibility to apply and process Financial Aid applications and Fee Waivers each year. Go to the Financial Aid office to process this immediately upon registering in classes.
- ✓ If you are a victim of domestic violence and there are security measures we should be aware of, please let a counselor or case manager know.
- ✓ Allow 4-6 business days for document processing.
- ✓ Comply with each campus’ prescribed programmatic requirements and expectations.

Please feel free to ask questions and discuss any concerns you may have.

I have read and understand my responsibilities as a student of the LACCD.
