PLEASE NOTE:

- Each examination is scheduled for two hours. Final exams for short-term classes shall be administered during the final two hours of the last class period.
- Every instructor is required to give a final examination following the schedule above. Deviations from the final exam schedule are not permitted because of the potential conflict with students' schedules. If students indicate that a conflict is occurring, instructors are advised to contact their supervising dean immediately.
- Every student is required to take a final examination.
- Final examinations are held in the room in which the class is regularly scheduled.
- In case of a conflict, please consult your instructor.
- Where the class is taught in an asynchronous format (100% distance education), the final exam is to be taught during final exam week and the agreed upon final exam day is to be determined by the instructor and students of that class.
